RIVERSIDE CONCERT BAND TO GIVE FREE PERFORMANCE

Fireworks Music" and Holst's "Second Suite in F" during the concert, which will begin at 8:15 p.m.

One of the oldest musical groups in southern California, the Riverside Concert Band, will present a free concert Thursday in the Recital Hall. The band will play famous marches, Handel's "Royal

With a history that dates back to the early days of this century, this community band is composed of musicians from Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Many of them are retired or actively involved in other professions.

The present director is Keating Johnson, who is also director of bands here. The band is operated as a non-profit organization in the city of Riverside. It has a 10-month season, in which it performs indoor and outdoor concerts at least twice a month during the spring and fall. During the summer, it pursues a more active schedule.

BLOOD DRIVE IS TUESDAY

The annual CSCSB Blood Drive is Tuesday. Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to give blood donations between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the Health Center waiting room.

Donors must be age 18-65, in good health and weigh more than 110 pounds. The process takes about 45 minutes, and President Pfau has authorized release time for employees wishing to donate.

This campus established a blood reserve fund many years ago so there would always be a supply of blood available for students, staff or faculty members, and their dependents. The supplies need to be replenished every year to keep the fund active. Questions concerning the fund may be referred to the Health Center, Ext. 7641.

This year, the following prizes will be awarded: CSEA and CFA donations of $15 each to two faculty and staff donors; an anonymous prize of $25 to a student donor; $25 and a Blood Bank plaque to the residence house with the most donors; "The Gift of Love" coffee mug to persons donating for the third time in 1981 and for active donors who bring two new donors to the Health Center; and two mugs for persons donating for the fifth time in 1981.

HEALTH INSURANCE OPEN ENROLLMENT ENDS TODAY

Today is the last day to enroll in or make changes in a health insurance benefit plan under open enrollment. The changes, which will be effective Dec. 1, may be made at the Personnel Office.

DENTAL INSURANCE CLINICS SCHEDULED

Personnel interested in signing up for the new dental insurance coverage must do so during one of the clinics scheduled by the Personnel Office beginning next week.

The one-hour clinics will be held in PS 10 from 3-4 p.m., Friday, Nov. 6; 11 a.m.-noon, Monday, Nov. 9; and 3-4 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 10. Employees are reminded to bring full names and birthdates for family members to be insured. Persons covered by dental plans offered through CSEA, CFA, UPC, ACSUP or Sanders & Associates should also attend, as their coverage will be affected.

Coverage will be offered through the Aetna Life Insurance Co. and Private Medical-Care, Inc. It is free to employees appointed half-time or more for more than six months. Dependents' eligibility is the same as for health insurance.

Aetna will provide an indemnity plan under which an individual may visit the dentist of his choice. Either the dentist or the employee will be reimbursed for covered charges.

Private Medical-Care, Inc., will offer a prepaid group dental plan. Under this plan, individuals must select a dentist from a panel. Many procedures are fully covered, and a reasonable co-payment is required for some types of dental work.

PERS STATEMENTS HAVE NEW LOOK

The annual statements from the Public Employees' Retirement System, which are usually distributed in September, will arrive in December.

A new item on the statement will be a figure representing the total interest a member has had credited to his account since membership date. This figure will include interest applied to both normal contributions and any additional ones that may have been paid.

HUMMEL'S EARLY WORKS ON DISPLAY IN LIBRARY

The early paintings and sketches of German artist Berta Hummel will be on display beginning tomorrow in the Library. The exhibit, which will end Nov. 29, includes about 40 works in charcoal and watercolor which she created before her 21st birthday. She later entered the Franciscan convent of Siessen and became Sister Maria Innocentia Hummel. Her later sketches inspired the W. Goebel firm to create the famous Hummel ceramic figurines.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

ART SALE GALLERY OPENS NEXT WEEK

The Art Sale Gallery in VA 102 will open Monday. Student art, including woodwork, ceramics and paintings, will be sold from noon-5 p.m. Refreshments will be offered from noon-3 p.m. on opening day.

Sponsored by the Art Club, the Art Sale Gallery will be open from noon-5 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning Nov. 5.

BIOFEEDBACK MINI-SEMINAR SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY

Dr. Frederick Newton (Psychology) and Carl Coolbaugh, president of Psi Chi, will present a mini-seminar on biofeedback from noon-1 p.m., Wednesday, in BI 105.

The program is not only designed to acquaint the campus community with the biofeedback equipment in the lab, but also to provide a brief outline of various methods for reading and using biofeedback.

NATIONWIDE HEALTH TEST STARTS MONDAY

This campus has been selected as one of about 40 institutions to participate in health-related physical fitness tests sponsored by the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.

The tests will be administered Nov. 2-12. Specific times will be announced next week. All students who are age 17-25 are encouraged to participate in the tests, which include a one-mile run, skinfold measurements, modified setups and sit-and-reach (flexibility) exercises. The test data will be used in the development of national norms.

Individuals interested in participating in this nationwide testing program should contact the Physical Education and Recreation Office, Ext. 7561. Test subjects should wear shorts, T-shirts and tennis or running shoes.

NOVEMBERFEST EVENTS ALL DAY WEDNESDAY

Booths with information about clubs on campus, other displays, food, games and music will be part of the annual Novemberfest fall festival beginning about 10 a.m., Wednesday near the Student Union.

A band composed of students from the Music Department will perform from noon-1 p.m. Their music is a variety of innovative sounds and African beat. Allamatch will perform from 1-3 p.m. This band plays music for all tastes and occasions, including numbers from the '50s, country, swing, disco, rock and roll, jazz and top 40s. A karate demonstration is scheduled from 4-5 p.m.

College faculty, staff and students are invited to participate.

'LOCATIONS' ARTIST TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY

Artist Judy Simonian, whose photographs are included in the "Locations" exhibit in the Art Gallery, will speak about her work at noon Wednesday in VA 110. The show will close at 9 that evening.

COMMUNITY INVITED TO UPWARD BOUND BANQUET

The community is invited to attend the annual Upward Bound recognition and achievement banquet from 6:30-9:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 7, in the Commons.

D'Urville Martin, an actor, director and producer, will speak about education leading to careers, goal setting, decision making and self-improvement.

The purpose of the banquet is to recognize students in the Upward Bound program who have excelled academically, according to John Chesney, the program director at Cal State. Upward Bound is a federally funded program designed to improve the academic and social skills of low-income high school students and to encourage them to continue their education in a post-secondary institution.

Banquet reservations, required by Thursday, may be made by calling the Upward Bound Office, Ext. 7209 or 7200. A $7 donation will be requested of persons not in the Upward Bound program.

LEGAL AID CLINICS TO ASSIST STUDENTS

Legal advice through the Legal Aid Society of San Bernardino will be available to CSCSB students beginning Monday. Clinics are scheduled Mondays from 1-3:30 p.m. in SU Meeting Room B. Appointments must be made in advance at the Student Union desk. Current A.S. identification cards will be required for making an appointment.

In return for the Legal Aid Society's services, the A.S. Board of Directors has authorized a donation to the society. The work load of this quarter will be reviewed during winter quarter to determine if the plan should be continued.

FREE CONCERT FEATURES BLIND PIANIST MONDAY

Dr. Janne Irvine Newman, who has been blind since birth, will give a free fortepiano recital at 8:15 p.m., Monday. She will also meet with students from 9-11 a.m. to discuss coping with disabilities and will conduct a master class for music majors from 2-4 p.m. All events will be in the Recital Hall.

NOTEWORTHY

Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Health Science and Human Ecology) served on a review panel Oct. 16 for the selection of a division manager for the San Bernardino County Department of Environmental Health Services.

Dr. Mary Patterson (Nursing), a member of the Government Relations Commission of the California Nurses Assn., participated in a commission meeting Oct. 25 and 26 in Sacramento. The commission discussed, among other issues, the association's position on two-year licensure bills and the licensure of nurse midwives and nurse anesthetists.

Jo An Von Wald (Registrar) and Cheryl Weese (Admissions) co-chaired the fall conference of the Southern California PACRAO (Pacific Assn. of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers). The conference was held on campus Oct. 27, with representatives from 48 campuses in attendance.

PUBLICATIONS

Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Health Science and Human Ecology) has two articles published in the current issues of the California Journal of Environmental Health. They are titled "On the Technical Challenges of the '80s" and "A Report on the Proposed State Department of Toxics."
